OVER THE DEEP BLUE SEA.

FRANCE REJECTS THE ITALIAN COMMERCIAL TREATY.

Gratification is felt in Germany over the results—A Farce of a Duel Near Paris England Protesting Against the Russian Government Closing Batoum.

LONDON, July 19.—Much gratification is felt in Berlin over the rejection by France of the Italian commercial treaty and the great degree of local irritation which will eventually result from the rejection among the people of Nice and the Riviera, is regarded as favorable to the plans of Germany to bring about a rupture between France and Italy. There is good reason to believe that the Emperor will be induced to take a stand in favor of France, and to bring about a reconciliation with the authorities at Berlin with a view of securing the neutrality of Germany in case of war between Russia and Turkey, and retain for Russia neutrality in the event of war between Germany and Italy allied and France.

The election excitement has entirely subided, even speculation being languid, in view of the foregone conclusion that the Conservative candidate, Sir Randolph Churchill, will be immediately summoned to London, his friends say, full of fight and resolved to accomplish the exclusion of Sir Richard Ashton Cross, William Henry Smith and the others from the new cabinet. Lord Salisbury will return about the middle of next week.

The petition against the prima facie result of the recent election for the city of London—Jerry Dunn, a Radical, and a favorite of the Particularists—was rejected by the court of law yesterday, and the election was declared valid. The trial, which had been adjourned for a week, was adjourned again during the past few days, in collecting evidence to support their case, and are confident that they can without difficulty, prove the illegality of scores of the votes cast for the Tory candidate. The petition was drafted by Mr. Timothy M. Healy.

The Dual Palace.

PARIS, July 19.—The duel between Gen. Boulanger, minister of war, and Baron de Lareinty, arising from the remarks of the Baron in the senate Thursday, relative to the suspension of the Duke of Aosta, was received with great interest by the French press.

The duel was fought in a forest near Marnes, five miles west of Paris. When the command to fire was given Baron de Lareinty shot at Gen. Boulanger. The latter stood unmoved at the result of the shot without flinching.

Following himself untouched by his opponent's bullet, Gen. Boulanger raised his own pistol and fired up into the air. The commandant then left the field. The gunner was immediately sent to the office of the war department. A large crowd had assembled to learn the result of the duel, and they gave Gen. Boulanger an ovation when he appeared.

From the Elections.

LONDON, July 19.—For the Northern division of Mountrath, Mr. Patrick O'Brien, a Radical, was elected, defeating Mr. Leslie, Conservative candidate. The vote stood, O'Brien 3,962, Leslie 3,491.

The results of the parliamentary elections up to a p. m. to-day, show no gain for the working class. The Tories have 317, and the Liberal 187.

Lord Arthur W. Hill, Conservative, has been re-elected for the Western division of Dow, defeating Mr. MacHugh, the Parnellite candidate. The vote stood, Hill 6,839, and MacHugh 3,191. In the previous election for that division, Lord Arthur was elected without opposition.

A Crack Wants to Marry the Queen.

LONDON, July 19.—A crack signing himself "James Junior," recently wrote a letter to the Queen, couched in the most affectionate terms, offering her majesty his hand in marriage. The Queen, it is said, would be very glad to receive him.

He was immediately condemned with the words, "No, never," by the Queen, and MacHugh, the Liberal, twice, but not seriously injured. Carter and McClure have fled the town, and more trouble will likely follow.

Suing Out an Injunction.

PHILADELPHIA, July 19.—Counsel for the National Cable company, of New York, filed a bill in equity, in the U. S. district court, against the Pennsylvania and Ohio Railroad, and the Lancaster and Columbia, which ended in a fierce battle with Whistlers rifles and revolvers. Jack Moore fell dead, pierced with six bullets. Tom Moore was severely wounded, and MacHugh, the Liberal, twice, but not seriously injured. Carter and McClure have fled the town, and more trouble will likely follow.

Fighting Against Closing Batoum.

PHILADELPHIA, July 19.—The Journal Des Debats publishes a dispatch from its London correspondent, in which he states that Lord Rosebery, the English foreign minister, has addressed a protest to the government against the closing of the port of Batoum. The correspondent adds that Earl Rosebery has presented to Russia that England regards the former's conduct in this respect as a flagrant violation of the Berlin treaty.

The Standard's Comments.

LONDON, July 19.—The Standard, continues to believe that Lord Salisbury assumes the responsibility and aids Lord Hartington and his friends to assist in the formation of a ministry, the latter will decline. Both parties will support Sir Robert Peel's re-election to the command of the army.

Painting a Portrait.

BERLIN, July 19.—The Emperor William has appointed a painter, Mr. Schadow, to paint a portrait of the Emperor. The painter is the author of the famous painting of the Emperor in his study.

Paying the Piper.

LONDON, July 19.—The Bulgarian parliament has voted credit for the expenses of the war with Servia, and has authorized the government to open a loan for the amount of £1,000,000, to be used for the army and navy.

Autograph Confession.

BOSTON, July 19.—In the trial of Timothy Coffey for manslaughter in causing the death of John Culver, the defendant, who is a notorious autograph collector, confessed that he had killed Culver, the deceased brother of the defendant, avowing that the writer had killed Culver and that Timothy was wholly innocent. John Culver had not yet been recovered when the boat left for Akron last evening.

Brutal Brethren.

PANAMA, July 19.—All the members of the cabinet and nearly all the deputies and senators have called on Gen. Boulanger, minister of war, and congratulated him on the outcome of his duel with Baron de Lareinty.

Postscript.

London, July 19.—The trial of Timothy

GRANTED A PARDON.

A Georgia Convict in the Penitentiary for Life is Released.

ATLANTA, Ga., July 19.—George Brown was convicted in 1878 for murder, and sentenced to be hanged. The sentence was afterward commuted to imprisonment for life, and he was released on a writ of habeas corpus. The sheriff gave him a pistol and told him not to allow the convict to escape. Brown replied that he was not authorized, and the sheriff said: "I authorize you my deputy to do so." Brown shot and killed him.

He has been serving out his life sentence since 1879, and has maintained a good reputation. He is six feet four inches tall and weighs 320 pounds. He has learned to speak English, and is a good workman. He only rarely goes to the prison, and when he does it is to work.

Broadway Surface Railroad Case.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., July 19.—The Broadway Surface railroad case came up before Judge Landau, in the supreme court of the state of Albany, on Monday.

On motion of Attorney General O'Brien, to have the permanent injunction enjoined, restraining all other than Reister John O'Brien from operating the Broadway Surface railroad, receiving monies from it, or bringing suit against it until the winter of next year, the court denied the application for the winding up of the affairs of the corporation.

The court adjourned the trial of the case to the next term of the court, to be held on the 25th of next month. The case will be tried on the 25th of next month.

A Boiler Lets Go.

WELLSVILLE, O., July 19.—An upright boiler in the boiler room of Joseph F. Soddy, second street, let go at 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning.

Adjoining the boiler house is the residence of Mrs. Maggie Driscoll, whose two little girls, Clara, aged five, and Mary, aged three, were playing in the room when the explosion occurred. The children were cut and half fast by the falling building, while the scalding steam poured over them. Clara was taken to the hospital, and Mary was taken to the hospital and could not recover.

The boiler, weighing a ton, was blown through the roof, and buried in a brickyard 300 feet distant.

A Forger Absconds.

PITTSBURG, July 19.—Chief Clerk Samuel K. Gay of the Pittsburg pension office, has absconded after forgoing the name of Pension Agent Russell. The discovery was made yesterday, and the office was closed.

After an absence of a week, and an absence of a month, he was again at his post, and it was learned that he had absconded to the west.

He is reported to have been in New York, and it is thought that he has gone to Canada. The development of the fact is, that in addition to the forgoing he had succeeded in making off with a considerable sum belonging to the government, and it is thought that the amount will reach $20,000. Gay was a model young man, and was addicted to any evil habits so far as known.

A Bullet of Bullets.

MT. VERNON, Ky., July 19.—About 6 o'clock last evening Judge G. W. Clegg and Lee Carter entered the grocery store owned by Jack and Tom Moore, a drug store, and a hardware store, on one side and the Moore boys on the other, which ended in a fierce battle with both sides using rifles and revolvers. Jack Moore fell dead, pierced with six bullets. Tom Moore was not seriously injured, and Carter and McClure have fled the town, and more trouble will likely follow.

Suing Out an Injunction.

PHILADELPHIA, July 19.—Counsel for the National Cable company, of New York, filed a bill in equity, in the U. S. district court, against the Pennsylvania and Ohio Railroad, and the Lancaster and Columbia, which ended in a fierce battle with Whistlers rifles and revolvers. The court adjourned the trial of the case to the next term of the court.
